

BOWL FULL OF BENEFITS

Members of the Fairfield-Suisun Unified Teachers Association score by paying monthly dues

- Salary, benefits and working conditions as stipulated by the contract between the district and FSUTA
- Representation on matters pertaining to the contract and other issues in the classroom
- Joining an organization that advocates for students, staff and the education profession
- Having a voice on legislative issues that impact student learning and working conditions in schools
- Voting privileges for the ratification of the contract and electing leaders at the local, state and national levels
- CTA and NEA professional development trainings by members for members seeking to improve professional skills, social awareness and leadership
- CTA Death & Dismemberment Insurance
- NEA complimentary life insurance

- Legal services and professional advice for
 - Due process, leave rights, layoffs and credentialing cases
 - Certification issues
 - Discrimination under federal and state laws based on race, gender, age, sexual orientation, etc.
 - Discrimination based on union activity
 - Retirement issues
- Exclusive discounts
 - Auto and home insurance
 - Voluntary life and disability insurance
 - Travel, restaurants, theme parks and purchasing discounts
 - CTA 430(b) Retirement Savings Plan and other financial resources
 - Financial services ranging from credit cards and credit unions to special mortgage and auto loan programs

NON-MEMBERS ARE LEFT WITH 7-10 SPLIT

- Salary, benefits and working conditions as stipulated by the contract between the district and FSUTA
- Representation on matters pertaining to the contract and other issues in the classroom

EDUCATE!
ENGAGE!
EMPOWER!
FSUTA!